

Peace rally, Dallas Texas, Monday February 19, 2007, 4:00 – 6:00 PM

Dallas Rally, <http://www.dallasrally.com/> , made the called for the rally. Iranians for Peace and Justice, IPJ, participated in the rally to raise the voice for peace. More than 220 peace loving people participated in this rally and the people, who were driving by, were honking their horns in support of peace movement.

Mehri Cornet, one of the members of IPJ discussed our point of views and our concerns about the expansion of the war to Iran by George Bush's administration. She also supported the end of war in Iraq and bringing troops home.

Considering the time of the rally, weekday during the working hours, this was a successful rally.
